

Dear Commissioners,

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers.

I am against this proposed action, and expect that a great majority of my fellow Hoosiers are as well. I urge you to turn down the CBA's petition, and allow the Indiana Telephone Privacy law to remain as it is.

Sincerely,

Thomas C. Russell
